BUREAU OF INDIAN STANDARDS

Manak Bhavan, 9, Bahadurshah Zafar Marg, New Delhi-110002
Website : www.bis.gov.in; Email : mstd@bis.gov.in

The Bureau may cancel or refuse to re-certify a licence under the following conditions and circumstances:

- a) The holder of licensee was found misusing of BIS Standard Mark;
- b) Misusing of Standard Mark (Please refer to chapter no.44 for use of Mark);
- c) Submission of incorrect records, false declaration and continuing unfair trade practices;
- d) The duration of suspension exceeds more than six months;
- e) Resuming operations in the new location without approval of the BIS;
- f) Violation of any one or all of the conditions of licence.

2.0. The BIS provides an opportunity to the holder of licence before cancellation or refusal or re-certification by providing a written notice of 21 days duration through appropriate means of communication such as email etc., This communication consists of justification for cancellation and the factors leading to the same. In addition, provision will also be made available for the holder to present his explanation before inviting for a personal enquiry.

3.0. The Bureau may cancel or refuse to re-certify the license, in case of non-receipt of a written response within a period of twenty-one days from the date of issue of the notice.

4.0. Before taking a decision, BIS will take into consideration of the response received from the license holder and provide an opportunity for personal hearing.

5.0. The decision taken by BIS for cancellation or refusal of re-certification under sub-paragraph (3) and (4) above shall be communicated to the holder of licence either by e-mail or any other suitable means of written communication along with the justification.

6.0. A license is said to be cancelled, when an Indian Standard is withdrawn and not superseded by any other Indian Standard, from the date of withdrawal. Those Indian Standard(s) and any licence(s) have to be surrendered to BIS by the holder of licence or certificate of conformity.

7.0. Refund of fee is applicable only when licence or certificate of conformity cancelled under sub-paragraph (6). BIS will refund the fee for the proportionate unexpired period of license only.
